PSYCHOTHERAPY & WELLNESS

About Luminations

Luminations Psychotherapy and Wellness is a group psychotherapy practice that provides services to adults in individual, relationship, and group counseling. We take a holistic approach to mental health and wellness, focusing on the mind body connection. Our therapists are grounded in psychodynamic, humanistic/existential, and person-centered approaches. We are trauma-informed, and also integrate mind body practices into our work, including yoga, mindfulness, and meditative breath work.

In addition to our mind body approach, we are a team of therapists dedicated to providing LGBTQ affirming services and have over 10 years of experience of LGBTQ activism and psychotherapy. Located in the heart of Andersonville, our offices provide a safe and welcoming environment for the community.
